*“Receive the child with reverence,
Nature the child with love,
To find his way to freedom.”
(Rudolf Steiner)*

Our Concept

Our impulse is based upon Rudolf Steiner’s anthroposophical anthropology, where the individuality of each child is recognised in it’s physical, mental and spiritual aspects. The holistic practise of the Kindergarten takes into account the potential and needs of each child in his/her early developmental stages. Each member of staff is called upon unreservedly to meet the unique situation of each child.

- We give careful attention to the rythms of the day, the week and the cycle and festivals of the year. This rhythm gives the basis for a protective, secure enviroment and atmosphere.
- The basic Christian background is mirrored in the celebration of festivals. This is an integral part of the life of community in the Kindergarten.
- Activities which stimulate the sense help to facilitate the developement of the processes that arise, through play to the forming of concepts.
- Activities such as finger games, nursery rhymes, Fairy Tales, drawing, painting and singing enhance the fine and gross motor skills and stimulate the development of speech.
- Through the provision of materials and objects which stimulate the imagination we support and encourage creative and free play.
- Healthy nutrition, preparing the food and eating together is one of the essentials of the social and community building experience.

Integration / Inclusion

The integration of individual children with special needs may be possible, depending on the facilities and professional resources required. We regard it as beneficial that the children with special needs can be taken into and included in the group dynamics.

The Team

Our Kindergarten teachers are all fully qualified, each holds an additional Waldorf certificate. We are here for your children.
